

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

UNIVERSITY FACULTY SENATE FALL 2005 CONFERENCE
Friday, November 11, 2005, 9:00 a.m.

What Institutional Autonomy? Why Academic Freedom Is Imperiled and What to Do About It

John Jay College of Criminal Justice, 445 West 59th Street, 2nd floor (in the Multi-purpose Room just off the main cafeteria).

9:00 Breakfast & Registration

9:30 Greetings

Susan O'Malley, UFS Chair
President Jeremy Travis, John Jay College

9:45 – 10:30 Keynote Speaker

Roger Bowen, General Secretary of the AAUP

10:30 – 11:00 Questions & Answers

11:00 – 11:15 Faculty Experience Survey, Dean Savage, Queens College

11:15 – 11:30 Explanation of Workshops

11:30 – 12: 30 Workshops

Workshop on Student Bill of Rights/ Academic Bill of Rights, Conference Room
(Led by Joel Kelsey, NYPIRG, and Bill Friedheim, BMCC)

Workshop on The Solomon Amendment, Conference Room)
(Led by Dan Pinello, John Jay, and Ken Sherrill, Hunter)

Workshop on Lack of a Computer Privacy Policy, Room 1301 (First Floor)
(Led by Stefan Baumrin, Grad School, and Philip Pecorino, Queensborough)

Workshop on Political Appointees in the University, Room 1303 (First Floor)
(Led by Joan Tronto, Hunter, and Sandi Cooper, CSI)

Workshop on Academic Freedom on Campus, Room 1306 (First Floor)
(Led by Lenore Beaky, LaGuardia, and Steve Leberstein, City)

12: 30 – 1: 30 Suggestions for Future Actions, Reports from Workshops, Lunch, & Discussion
