

Welcome to the Academy!

New members of the CUNY faculty are invited to a special conference,

The Insider's Guide to CUNY: Your Rights, Responsibilities, and Freedoms

Fall Conference

presented by the University Faculty Senate

Friday, November 14, 2008, 9:00 a.m.
at The John Jay College

The Insider's Guide to CUNY: Your Rights, Responsibilities, and Freedoms

9:00 Morning Reception with continental breakfast (RSVP required, see below.)
9:30 Welcoming Remarks

PART I: The Profession, Rights, Responsibilities and Freedoms

- * History of the Academy and the Collegium
- * History of Faculty Governance at CUNY: UFS, Senates and Councils
- * Professional Rights and Responsibilities in the Academy and in your Discipline
- * Academic Freedom at CUNY
- * Academic Prerogatives: Deciding Who Teaches, What is Taught, How, and To Whom?
- * CUNY Policies: Student Complaints, Workplace Violence, Plagiarism, Sexual Harassment, Affirmative Action, Conflicts of Interest
- * College Governance: Your Rights and Responsibilities

12:00 Lunch (RSVP required, see below.)

PART II: The Faculty: Responsibilities and Supports

- * The Faculty of CUNY: title, rank, and duties
- * The Reappointment, Tenure, and Promotion Process
- * Research at CUNY
- * Patents and Copyrights
- * Role of Publishing and Grants

PART III: Informal Small-Group Discussions with Presenters

3:00 Concluding Remarks

Read more at www.cunyUFS.org

RSVP

Your name, college, department, phone number, email (or fax) to Vernice.Blanchard@mail.cuny.edu (Secretary, UFS) fax 212-794-5508 phone 212-794-5538

Manfred Philipp, Chair, UFS / William Phipps, Executive Director / Stasia Pasela, staff